

Art on Country

Join us for a hands-on First Nations art session that helps students understand the meaning behind the symbols and patterns found across Country. This session is ideal for schools that want to embed First Nations perspectives in their learning and help students understand the deep relationship between art, land and community.

Age level

Prep- Grade 6. .

Number of students per session

Up to 30 students per session.

Location

Incursion.

Duration

1 hour.

Timing

All year round.

What's involved

A First Nations representative will show students how art reflects identity, history and the knowledge passed down through generations. Students will learn the meaning behind common Aboriginal art symbols and then get hands-on, experimenting with marks, tracks and creative techniques to create their own visual story.

Optional sessions

Want to learn more about First Nations culture? Join us for a Cultural Heritage, Reading the Night Sky, Yedabila Habitat Pods or Seasonal Indicators in your Backyard session.
