

Little Artists on Country

Children love turning their ideas into art! This session helps children explore the meanings behind First Nations symbols and patterns through fun, hands-on creativity. It's ideal for ELC groups that are looking for an introduction to First Nations art or would like children to explore culture through creative play.

Age level

3+

Number of children per session

Up to 30 children per session.

Location

Incursion.

Duration

1 hour.

Timing

All year round.

What's involved

Join our First Nations educator for a playful art session where children explore the meanings behind symbols, patterns and stories from Country as they make their own artwork.

Children will experiment with mark-making, nature-inspired shapes and simple storytelling symbols while learning how art helps First Nations peoples share identity, history and connection.

Optional sessions

Want to learn more about First Nations culture? Join us for a Cultural Heritage for Littlies or Discovering Bush Tucker session.
